

Spring Phosphorus 2015

Spring phosphorus concentration was 23 ppb (parts per billion or micrograms per liter).

The ten year average for the measurement is 24 ppb.

Phosphorus is the main nutrient that contributes to unwanted aquatic weed growth - fish and plants do well in lakes ranging from 10-30 ppb